Dear Madam:- As per my promise to you when I was in the Library last week, I am enclosing a part of the Umstead line as I have it worked out. The greater part of this line tho is being handled by a cousin in Salem Ohio, who has much information that I am not in possession of. I merely pick up facts whenever I find them and report them to him. Of course I have a great deal more data than what I enclose, but much of it needs classifying and arranging.

Hoping that this short sketch will be of some benefit to you, I subscribe,

Cordially Yours,

E. Ray Sullivan

I am still pursuing Shaw and Sullivans. but without avail.

UMSTEAD FAMILY.

Being a partial digest of data being collected, arranged, and authenticated, for a History of the descendants of Hans Peter Umstat.

From the entries in an old Germa bible which was printed in Nuremburg in 1568 and which was brot to this country by said Hans Peter, we learn that Nicholas Umstat, father of Hans Peter, died in Crefeld Germany at four oclock in the morning Oct.4,1682.

Hans Peter with his family arrived at Germantown Pa. on the ship Frances and Dorothy, Oct.12,1685. Here he had bought 300 acres from Dick Sipman and here he spent the remainder of his days.
